DID YOU KNOW?

The Lowry is a registered charity (number 1053962).

At the heart of The Lowry is a commitment to local communities and young people. Tapping into the work on our stages and in our galleries, we offer a range of creative opportunities each year. We are passionate about the transformative effects that arts and culture can have when working alongside children and young people who are facing challenges in their lives.

The Lowry offers a range of programmes which allow young people to develop as creative professionals of the future and reach their potential.

Focus projects

The Lowry is committed to working with the most vulnerable children and young people by using the arts as a tool for positive social change. With strong local partnerships these projects enable the most 'At Risk' young people to have access to life changing opportunities; to learn new skills, gain qualifications, develop their confidence through high quality creative programmes. This exciting work brings high quality artists together with children and young people who are experiencing challenges in their life in a way that creates a safe space for self-expression, political thought and creative ideas.
