The Magic Flute

This is an epic tale about growing up, finding your way in the world and learning to love. Join Prince Tamino on his quest to rescue Pamina, daughter of the Queen of the Night held captive by the Priest of the Sun. Adventure jostles with dark fantasy, comedy collides with powerful drama, all set to Mozart's miraculous music.

Katya Kabanova

Janáček's wildly beautiful tale of a woman trapped in a desperately unhappy marriage, unable to resist temptation. The highly-charged, non-stop drama in one of opera's most authentic masterpieces is driven by sublime music that crackles with tension and eroticism.

The Rite of Spring / Gianni Schicchi

Iconic ballet 'The Rite of Spring' is reimaged in an exciting collaboration between Opera North and Phoenix Dance Theatre. Paired with Puccini's comic masterpiece 'Gianni Schicchi' - in which scheming relatives squabble over an inheritance and features one of his best loved arias 'O mio babbino caro' - this is a thrilling collision of opera and dance.

Lose yourself in the decadence of 1920s New York in Northern Ballet's 'The Great Gatsby'.

Mysterious millionaire Jay Gatsby has a penchant for lavish parties and beautiful women. As the sparkling façade of his world begins to slip, the loneliness, obsession and tragedy that lies beneath is revealed.

F. Scott Fitzgerald's classic novel is brought to life as dancers glide to a cinematic score by Sir Richard Rodney Bennett CBE.
