WELCOME TO THE LOWRY.

WEEK 53 RETURNS!

The Lowry's multi-art form festival is back across 10 jam-packed days from FRI 24 APRIL - SUN 3 MAY.

The biennial festival is our opportunity to fill the building with brilliant contemporary art and performance as we commission and present artists that we think are really pushing the boundaries and creating exciting work.

With a programme including exhibitions, installations, performances, interactive projects and live events, be sure to visit us and see The Lowry from a new perspective!

We look forward to seeing you soon.

I THINK WE ARE ALONE

BY SALLY ABBOTT
CO-DIRECTED BY KATHY BURKE
AND SCOTT GRAHAM

A Frantic Assembly and Theatre Royal Plymouth Production, co-produced with Curve

Frantic Assembly are celebrating their 25th Anniversary with a brand-new production, I Think We Are Alone by Sally Abbott, co-directed by Kathy Burke and Scott Graham.

I Think We Are Alone is a bittersweet and funny take on our ache to connect with those voices we need to hear again, those arms we need to feel around us and those faces we need to see again. It is about letting go and holding on to what we love the most.

I Think We Are Alone is a delicate, uplifting play about our fragility, resilience and our need for love and forgiveness.

A co-production with

DRAMA

The National Theatre and Sherman Theatre present the world premiere of Romeo and Julie, a powerful and funny new play inspired by Shakespeare's romantic tragedy.

Romeo is a teenage dad hanging on tight. Julie is fighting for her dream of studying at Cambridge.

Two eighteen year-olds raised a few streets apart, but from entirely different worlds, crash into first love. But at this crossroads to the rest of their lives, both families fear the worst.

DANCE

25 years after dance iconoclast Lloyd Newson first dragged British pub culture kicking and yelling onto the stage, his 'rare, rich, devastating, triumphant work of art' (Daily Telegraph) returns.

As pertinent now as when first staged, Enter Achilles wrestles with the notion of masculinity, through the funny, provocative and disturbing actions of eight men during an evening in a British pub.

'Remarkably clever and disturbing... It is excellently danced, imaginatively conceived...'

DRAMA

The National Theatre's smash hit production of The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time returns to Salford!

Fifteen-year-old Christopher has an extraordinary brain - exceptional at maths, while ill-equipped to interpret everyday life. He has never ventured alone beyond the end of his road, he detests being touched and he distrusts strangers. When he falls under suspicion for killing his neighbour's dog, it takes him on a journey that upturns his world.

Hailed as 'extraordinary', 'dazzling' and 'unmissable' by Time Magazine, The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time is a theatrical phenomenon simply not to be missed.

A romantic revenge tragedy.

Rescued from the Liverpool docks as a child, Heathcliff is adopted into the Earnshaws' farmhouse home of Wuthering Heights.

Lost in his new surroundings, he finds a kindred spirit in Catherine Earnshaw, and their fierce love ignites. But when forced apart, they unleash a brutal chain of events that will haunt generations to come.

Shot through with music, dance, passion and hope, Emma Rice (Romantics Anonymous, Wise Children, Brief Encounter) transforms Emily Brontë's masterpiece into a uniquely theatrical experience. Lucy McCormick (Post Popular) and John Pfumojena (Peter Pan) lead the company of performers and musicians.
