

Date	Event	Summary	Supporter event	Fundraising event
April
Thursday 27 April 5.30pm	Hew Locke: The Ambassadors Preview and Drive Your Plow Over the Bones of the Dead	An evening of Lowry commissions, starting in The Galleries with an exclusive look at Hew Locke's The Ambassadors , before taking your seats in The Lyric Theatre for the world-renowned international touring company Complicité as they present new work in the form of Drive Your Plow Over the Bones of the Dead , directed by Simon McBurney.	Free to attend. Need to be booked by RSVP. (Includes show ticket)
May
Friday 12 May 7pm	Hew Locke In Conversation	Coinciding with Hew Locke's exhibition The Ambassadors in the Lowry Galleries, join us for a special conversation between Hew Locke and artist Nicola Singh. Hear Hew Locke discuss his artistic practice and delve deeper into his work The Ambassadors , originally commissioned by The Lowry in 2019.	Free to attend. Need to be booked by RSVP. (Limited capacity – first come first served.)
Thursday 18 May 7pm	Creative Writing Challenge Prize Ceremony	Join us in the Quays Theatre for the culmination of our first ever Creative Writing Challenge for children in Greater Manchester. From poetry, to scripts to stories, we will celebrate fantastic young talent with live performances on stage of the winning pieces	Free to attend. Need to be booked by RSVP.

		performed by the young authors themselves, and professional performers.
June
Saturday 3 & Sunday 4 June	We Invented The Weekend	A new exciting and imaginative free festival from Salford including music, theatre, sport, workshops, dancing, laughs, and more to celebrate the joy of free time.	Free to attend.
Thursday 22 June 6pm	Royal Shakespeare Company's Julius Caesar Pre-show Q&A with Director, Atri Banerjee	The Royal Shakespeare Company returns to The Lowry with a fast-paced political thriller, Julius Caesar , and we're delighted the show's Director Atri Banerjee will join us in the Quay Club to talk about his fresh interpretation of Shakespeare's timeless story.	Free to attend. Need to be booked by RSVP. (Includes show tickets)
Thursday 29 June	The Lowry's 18th Annual Charity Golf Day	Join us at Dunham Forest for our annual fundraising Golf Day. Teams cost £780.		✓
July
Wednesday 12 July Time tbc	Arts for Social Change Showcase	Join us to celebrate the achievements of young people from across our Arts For Social Change & Youth Employability & Skills programmes. An evening of visual art, films, poetry and performance by young carers, care experienced young people, young	Free to attend. Need to be booked by RSVP.

		parents and young people at risk of homelessness.
Saturday 22 July 3pm	Julia & Axel: Thirty Years of Favourite Stories Preview	Julia & Axel will celebrate thirty years of favourite stories by Julia Donaldson and Axel Scheffler. From The Gruffalo and Tiddler , to Zog and Room on the Broom , this colourful exhibition will explore their remarkable partnership and worldwide success. It will feature Julia Donaldson's original notebooks, and Axel Scheffler's first sketches, many being shown for the first time, alongside animations, photographs, ephemera, filmed interviews, and more.	Free to attend. Need to be booked by RSVP.
August
Date tbc	Open Day	The Lowry Open Day sees our doors open for a day of free activities that enable visitors of all ages to explore the venue in a completely new way. Activities include backstage tours and a variety of workshops and performances.	Free to attend

E-tickets to be sent in advance.

To RSVP or book please contact abi.tait@thelowry.com